The University

Tradition and innovation flourish side by side at Bowling Green State University. As the University entered its 70th year this fall, the campus and the curriculum showed the school's contemporary outlook.

Bowling Green is a residential university with more than 16,000 students, half of whom live in the 21 residence halls and small group living units on campus. The contemporary and traditional dormitories complement the gracious colonial architecture of some of the small residence houses.

Because the campus is residential, the University has made it a policy to provide recreational opportunities for its student-residents. Outdoor recreation areas on the school's 1,247 acres are numerous. An extensive intramural sports program is carried on using the many outdoor fields. The campus has 22 tennis courts and an 18-hole golf course.

The University's sports facilities include Doyt L. Perry Field, with seating for 23,272 spectators; Anderson Arena with a capacity for 5,200; the Ice Arena, where 3,500 fans can watch Bowling Green's nationally ranked hockey team; Whittaker Track, a nine-lane track with a new all-weather rubberized surface; and, Steller Field, which seats 2,000 for baseball games.

HISTORIC PROUT CHAPEL

For indoor recreation the University completed the Student Recreation Center in 1978. The $9.35 million complex has two swimming pools (one Olympic size); a multi-purpose area for such sports as basketball, tennis and volleyball; handball and squash courts; a dance studio and an elevated jogging track.

The Musical Arts Building opened last fall. The $8.75 million structure contains classrooms, practice rooms, offices, a recital hall and a larger concert hall with a capacity for an audience of 850.

$9.35 MILLION STUDENT RECREATION CENTER

The nine-story University Library towers over the center of campus. An abstract mural by Donald Drumm stretches from the top of the library's front to the base of a graceful stairwell inside the building's main entrance. A similar mural adorns the back of the building.

One of the University's services located in the library is the Center for Archival Collections. Books, newspapers, photographs and other records attract researchers to the Center's three collections: the Northwest Ohio Collection, the University Archives and the Great Lakes Research Center.

A roomy, new Alumni Center at the east end of campus is a home away from home for the University's many alumni. It houses the Alumni and Development Office and an art gallery. The building, which opened in 1976, offers space for meetings of campus and off-campus groups.

Prospective students are interviewed in McFall Center, the former University Library, renovated during 1976-77. The Graduate College, admissions and other administrative offices, an assembly room and an impressive art gallery are located in the Center. The high ceilings, arched windows and mellow woodwork contrast with the airy and open look of contemporary floor covering, furnishings and other decor.

President Hollis A. Moore

Hollis A. Moore has been president of Bowling Green State University since July, 1970.

Prior to coming to Bowling Green, Dr. Moore was vice-president of academic affairs at George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee. Earlier (1960-64) he was dean of the College of Education at the University of Arizona. He was affiliated with the Kellogg Foundation for two periods — 1955-60 and again in 1964-65.

A native of Pierce City, Missouri, he is a 1946 graduate of Baylor University where he studied history and political science. His doctoral degree is from the University of Texas (1953). He has received honorary doctorates from Hanyang University (Korea) and Central Michigan University. He is author or contributing author to ten books and numerous journal articles in the field of school and university administration.

Dr. Moore is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and the Executive Committee of that organization. He is also serving his second two-year term as Chairman of the Council of Presidents of the Mid-American Athletic Conference.

Vice President James E. Hof

The senior administrator in charge of the Athletic Department is Jim Hof, Vice President for Development and Alumni Affairs. A 1950 graduate, Hof has served the University as Vice President for the past nine years.

After receiving his Bachelor's Degree in 1950 and Master's Degree in 1951, both in Radio Speech, Hof held sales positions with the Sunbeam Corporation of Chicago. In 1957, he returned to Bowling Green as admissions officer.

In 1960, he became Director of Alumni Affairs in addition to his admissions post and in 1961 added a third job, that of Executive Director of the Bowling Green State University Foundation, Inc., a position he currently holds. The foundation is a private, independent corporation which accepts gifts for the University.

Hof dropped the admissions post in 1962, but in 1963 became acting director of University Relations, and in 1964 became the director. In May 1971, he was appointed Vice President for Public Services and became Vice President for Development and Alumni Affairs in 1979.

Athletic Director Jim Lessig

With a background as an administrator, educator, coach and Air Force lieutenant, personable Jim Lessig now begins his third year as athletic director at Bowling Green.

The 45-year-old native of Canton came to the athletic department in August, 1978, after serving for two years as executive director of alumni and development for Bowling Green. In that position, he was responsible for the University's total private funding program, including alumni, parents, friends, corporations and foundations. Prior to becoming executive director, Lessig worked from 1971 to 1976 as director of alumni affairs.

A 1957 graduate of Bowling Green with a bachelor's degree in education, Lessig went directly into the Air Force upon graduation, serving as director of special services for the 34th Air Division and eventually reaching the rank of 1st Lieutenant. He returned to Canton in 1960 and for four years taught English and coached basketball at several area high schools. His first major experience in fund raising took place in 1964 when he became assistant director of development at Bowling Green, assisting with private fund raising, and developing the BGSU Parents' Club.

While retaining that position, he became assistant athletic director and assistant basketball coach in 1966. His responsibilities included scheduling future opponents, serving as freshman basketball coach, directing ticket sales, directing the promotions department and handling athletic department fund raising.

Bill Fitch, now head coach of the Boston Celtics, led Bowling Green to a Mid-American Conference basketball championship in 1968, and when Fitch was named head coach at the University of Minnesota in 1979, Lessig went with him. Jim served as assistant coach and head scout for the Gophers during the 1969-70 season, then became assistant coach, head scout and director of promotions for the Cleveland Cavaliers during the 1970-71 season, when Fitch was head coach of the first-year NBA team. Lessig returned to Bowling Green one year later as director of alumni affairs, but kept his ties with Cleveland by serving as the color commentator on the Cavalier television network and doing play-by-play of the Cleveland Indians on a part-time basis for radio station WWWE.

Lessig recently was named to the NCAA Ice Hockey Committee, and will begin serving on the committee in September.

Jim and his wife, Margarita, live in Bowling Green and have two children.

Head Coach Denny Stolz

Denny Stolz enters his fourth year as head coach at Bowling Green, and for the first time will be working with players recruited solely by him and his coaching staff.

The former Big 10 Coach of the Year comes into the 1980 season with a 66-50-1 record in 12 years as a college head coach, including 13-21 in his first three years with the Falcons. He rejuvenated the football programs at Alma (Mich.) College and Michigan State by producing two unbeaten seasons at Alma, in 1967 and 1968, and the best record in eight years at Michigan State, a 7-3-1 mark in 1974.

"I remember sitting with a group of guys I went to high school with, discussing what careers we were going into," Stolz recalls. "I told them the great thing about coaching was that you have Christmas every Saturday during the fall because you always have a game to look forward to.

"I've never looked at coaching as a job. It's been too much fun. I enjoy the strategy and the competition the game provides, but even more, I enjoy the relationships with other coaches and players that come from football. I think that's an aspect of coaching people don't realize. I really get a kick out of seeing the kids I've coached in the past, having a chance to sit down and talk with them. In most jobs, you try to avoid half the people you deal with. In my job, I only wish I had more time to see everyone I'd like to."

A native of Lansing, Mich., Stolz grew up in Mason, Mich. and, like his three brothers, worked his way through Alma College to earn a bachelor's degree in 1955. He played quarterback for the Scots, and upon graduation became head football coach at Haslett (Mich.) High School, where he was 40-13-3 in nine years for a winning percentage of .732. Stolz then spent one year as defensive coordinator at Lansing Eastern High School before being named head coach at Alma prior to the 1965 season.

Taking over a program that had produced only three wins in four years, Stolz soon led his alma mater to 8-0 records for two consecutive years, and was named Michigan Coach of the Year in 1967. By the time he left Alma in 1971, Stolz had compiled a 34-16 record and led the school two outright Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association championships, and one co-championship.

His next stop was Michigan State, where Stolz served for two years as defensive coordinator to Duffy Daugherty before being named the Spartans' head coach in 1973. Again, Stolz turned around a foundering program. Within two years Michigan State had climbed to 7-3-1 overall and 6-1-1 in the Big 10 for its best finish since the 1966 team went unbeaten. The Spartans finished twelfth in the Associated Press poll and eighteenth in the United Press International rankings, and Stolz was named Big 10 Coach of the Year. The highlight of the season was a 16-13 upset of number one ranked Ohio State.

Michigan State finished 7-4 the next year, beating Notre Dame 10-3 at South Bend. Stolz resigned from Michigan State in March, 1976 with a 19-13-1 record, the only winning record in the Big 10 outside of Ohio State or Michigan during the preceding three years.

"The two most memorable games of my career have to be, first and foremost, the win over Ohio State," Stolz says. "ABC still considers it one of the top 10 games ever telecast. The second one would be the win over Notre Dame, especially since the game was played at Notre Dame."

While at Michigan State, Stolz coached the North to a victory in the All-American Bowl at Tampa, Fla. He has lectured across the nation at football clinics, and on Dec. 15, 1976 became the 12th head coach in the 61-year history of Bowling Green State University football.

Denny will celebrate his 46th birthday on Sept. 12, the eve of Bowling Green's home opener against Eastern Michigan. He and wife Cena have a son, Doak, 20, and two daughters, Dawn, 19 and Denise, 12.

Assistant Coaches

Charlie Baggett — Offensive Backs

A former standout quarterback at Michigan State under Denny Stolz, Charlie Baggett is in his fourth year on the staff at Bowling Green. He worked with the offensive backfield in 1977, the defensive ends in 1978 and then moved back over to offense in 1979.

A three-year letterman at Michigan State and co-captain of the team in 1974, Baggett earned his Bachelor's Degree in economics and food management in 1975. The Spartan MVP in 1974, he ranks third on the all-time MSU career passing list with 2,335 yards and is second in career total offense with more than 4,000 yards.

Baggett is responsible for recruiting in the Detroit and Flint area of Michigan. Baggett, who is single, worked with IBM in Lansing, Michigan, before joining the BGSU staff. He was born January 21, 1953, in Fayetteville, NC.

Kit Cartwright — Defensive Backs

Now in his second year with the Bowling Green staff, Kit Cartwright was largely responsible for the improved play of the Falcon secondary in 1979. The youngest member of the BGSU staff, he returned to his alma mater in March, 1979, after serving as a part-time assistant at Penn State for a year. A 1976 graduate of BGSU with a degree in biology, Cartwright served as an assistant football coach at Toledo Rogers for two years while an undergraduate at BGSU. After graduating from Bowling Green, he was a graduate assistant at the University of Toledo for a year, the defensive coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan in 1977 and worked with the secondary and the kicking game under Joe Paterno at Penn State in 1978.

Cartwright recruits in the Bowling Green and Toledo area in Ohio, and in southern Michigan.

Born January 4, 1954, in Toledo, he is married to the former Dawn Schepp.

Steve Devine — Offensive Guards & Centers

Steve Devine, the newest member of the Falcon coaching staff, brings Rose Bowl experience from two different schools to Bowling Green. While serving as a part-time assistant at both the University of Washington and Ohio State, Devine went to the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California.

A three-year letterman and co-captain of the Heidelberg College team, Devine received his degree in education in 1972. He coached at Marion Harding and Marysville High Schools before entering the collegiate coaching ranks in 1976.

He served as a graduate assistant at the University of Toledo before going to Washington under former Mid-Am Coach Don James. Washington went to the Rose Bowl in 1977. Then, in 1979, he returned to Ohio as a part-time assistant under Earle Bruce at Ohio State, and again went to Pasadena.

Devine, who joined the Bowling Green staff last winter when Charlie Butler moved to Memphis State, recruits in the Columbus area.

Born July 27, 1950, in Tiffin, he is single.

Jim Heacock — Defensive Coordinator

Advancing from a Division III background, Jim Heacock quickly impressed Denny Stolz with his football knowledge and organization and was named the Falcons' defensive coordinator in just his second year on the staff. Now in his third season as the defensive line coach and second as the defensive coordinator. Heacock is a 1970 graduate of Muskingum College.

A three-time All-Ohio selection as a defensive back while at Muskingum, Heacock played with the Green Bay Packers and Cincinnati Bengals in 1970 and 1971. After assisting at Marlinton High School for a year, he came to Bowling Green as a graduate assistant, working with the junior varsity and the varsity backfield in 1972. He then served as the head track coach and an assistant football coach at Muskingum for five years before returning to BGSU in a full-time capacity.

Heacock is responsible for recruiting in the Cleveland area.

Married to the former Sherry Brown this past June, he was born June 23, 1948, in Alliance, Ohio.

Mike Rasmussen — Offensive Coordinator

Another former Michigan State quarterback, Mike Rasmussen is serving as the Falcons' offensive coordinator for the fourth year in a row. He also works with the wide receivers.

A junior college All-American at Fresno City College, Rasmussen led his team to a pair of Valley Conference Championships before moving to Michigan State for his final two years. A 1972 MSU graduate, he served under Denny Stolz as a graduate assistant for two years at his alma mater. He was the offensive coordinator at Chico State in California in 1974 and was an assistant at the University of Hawaii for two years before rejoining Stolz in 1976.

Rasmussen recruits in the Detroit and southeastern Michigan area.

Born June 18, 1950, in Decatur, Illinois, Mike is single.

Scott Seeliger — Offensive Tackles & Tight Ends

In his second year with the Bowling Green football staff, Scott Seeliger has switched from the defense to the offense. He worked with the defensive ends in 1979, but is now coaching the offensive tackles and the tight ends.

Seeliger's background includes experience in both the Big Ten and the Big Eight. He was a tight end on the Iowa State team that played in the Sun Bowl in 1971. After graduating from Iowa State in 1972, he was the head coach at Sauk Prairie High School in Wisconsin for four years. His teams compiled a record of 28-8, including 17-1 in his final two seasons.

In 1977, Seeliger went to the University of Wisconsin, where he worked with the offensive tackles and tight ends, and was the head varsity reserve coach. The following year he coached the receivers and was in charge of all varsity scouting.

Seeliger recruits the Dayton and Cincinnati area for Bowling Green.

Scott and his wife, the former Karen Perschon, have two daughters. Scott was born January 6, 1950, in Madison, Wisconsin.

Gerry Solomon — Linebackers

Gerry Solomon is in his second year on Denny Stolz' staff at Bowling Green, working with the linebackers. He was a two-year starter and a co-captain as a senior at Bucknell University in Pennsylvania before graduating in 1973. He also has his Master's Degree in educational administration from Bucknell.

Solomon worked with Jim Heacock at Muskingum College in 1975-76. He was the defensive line coach and also the head swimming coach. From Muskingum, he went to Pennsylvania, coaching at Central Catholic High School in Pittsburgh for two years and then coaching the defensive line for Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh in 1978.

Solomon recruits in the Youngstown, Canton and Akron area.

Born March 21, 1951, in Arnold, Pa., Gerry and his wife, the former Adele DeBartolo, have two children.

Glenn Sharp Equipment Manager

Glenn Sharp, one of the top equipment managers in the business, is starting his 24th year as a member of the Falcon staff. The Bloomdale, O., native was recognized by his peers in the summer of 1978 when he was chosen as the winner of the first annual "Equipment Manager of the Year" at the Athletic Equipment Managers Association national convention. A founding father in that group, "Sharpie" also serves as an officer in the group along with his wife. In 1975 he became the second "Honorary Letterman" at Bowling Green and he was also honored with an "Honorary Alumnus" award. His equipment room has been copied by many other schools in the country and he is frequently called upon by various groups to speak on equipping teams. In addition to handling the purchase of equipment, Glenn also heads up the student manager program. He and his wife, Helen, are the parents of two sons and one daughter. He was born February 21, 1921.

Bill Jones Head Athletic Trainer

Bill Jones is in his sixth year in charge of Bowling Green's sports medicine staff. He joined the Falcon staff in 1974 following a three-year stint as head athletic trainer at Ashland (O.) College. A 1965 graduate of Bowling Green, Jones has also served as an assistant football coach at both Vermilion and Findlay High Schools and spent time as an assistant trainer at the University of Toledo. The South Amherst (O.) High School graduate is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and a well-known clinic speaker. He has directed the student trainer's workshops at Bowling Green the past few summers. The 37-year-old native of South Amherst handles a staff of over 20 men and women trainers. Jones, who holds a Master's Degree from Bowling Green, also served as golf coach at Ashland College during his stay there. He and his wife, Barbara, have two children. He was born June 28, 1943.

Falcons Look To Be In The Running

The 1980 version of the Bowling Green State University football team expects to literally be in the running for the Mid-American Conference Championship. After five years of being a pass-oriented team led by the arms of Mark Miller (Cleveland Browns) and Mike Wright (Chicago Bears), the Falcons figure to rely on a ground attack offense and an improving defense to challenge for the title.

With Wright's graduation and the return of a stable full of running backs, Coach Denny Stolz' offense will emphasize the run more than in his first three seasons at Bowling Green. The coaching staff has made some subtle adjustments in the defense that they hope will better suit the personnel they have to work with. The kicking game, an often overlooked part of a team, is sounder than it has been in any of Stolz' first three seasons.

Bowling Green's chances of challenging for the MAC Championship appear to ride on two factors - staying healthy and building momentum. It was in just those areas that the Falcons were hurt last year as they struggled to a 4-7 overall record and a 3-5 MAC mark.

Several players were banged up in an early season loss to a big, strong Iowa State team. Then after the Falcons won a critical game at Western Michigan, they had a chance to go to 3-1 in the MAC. A poor first half performance left them trailing Toledo 23-3 at home. BGSU rallied to cut the deficit to 23-17 and had the ball with a first down on the Toledo one yard line in the final minute, but a fumble gave Toledo the ball, the victory and the momentum to make a serious run at the championship. For Bowling Green, it meant a stunning defeat, loss of any momentum, and relegated the Falcons to a spoiler role.

After a victory over Kent State, the Falcons had a chance to salvage a winning season and a first division finish, but Wright was sidelined by an infected elbow the next week, and the Falcons lost to nemesis Miami, their third straight loss at home. Only a wild, crowd-pleasing 31-27 victory over southern independent power Southern Mississippi brightened the final month of the season.

This year the Falcons' schedule builds up to the league season with three of their first four games against non-conference opponents. Coach Stolz and his staff will be looking for a victory over Eastern Michigan in the league opener on September 13, and strong performances against outsiders Richmond (Sept. 6), Long Beach State (Sept. 20) and Kentucky (Sept. 27). BG's game at Western Michigan October 4 is the first of seven straight MAC contests.

Coach Stolz was pleased with the progress made by the team in spring practice, but feels there is still a lot of work ahead. "I think we have good first units, both offensively and defensively," Stolz says, "but like most teams in the MAC, our depth is suspect. We do have two or three sets of offensive backs who can play at this level, but we will be counting on a transfusion of freshmen to provide depth in the other areas."

A position-by-position analysis of the 1980 Falcons follows.

Offense

Quarterback: The graduation of Mike Wright leaves a large void at this critical spot. There is not anybody who will step in and do the job that Wright did for the last two years, or Mark Miller did in the three years before that, but three candidates are fighting for the starting spot. Senior Dave Endres was superb as Wright's back-up in 1978, but saw very limited action last year other than the Miami game when he was thrust into a starting role at the last minute by Wright's injury. Sophomores Greg Taylor and Dayne Palsgrove lack experience, but are both better runners than Endres and improved in practice sessions last fall. Taylor made a brief appearance against Ohio University in the season finale last year.

Coach Stolz' View: The quarterback situation is unknown going into fall camp. Anyone of the three could get the starting nod against Richmond. Endres has the most experience and is a fine passer, while Palsgrove and Taylor lack any varsity experience, but have been impressive in workouts.

Running Backs: The Falcons' corp of running back contains both quality and quantity. All of the running backs from last year return with an added year's experience. Junior tailback Kevin Folkes led the team in rushing in 1979 (163 carries for 696 yards), but he is being pushed by sophomore speedster Jeff McCormick, sophomore Chip Otten who is recovering from a broken ankle, and junior Dave Cassel, the number two tailback in 1978 and a redshirt last season. As a group, the Falcon tailbacks are small (avg. size - 5'8", 170), but quick (avg. speed for the 40 - 4.6 seconds). Senior Dave Windatt and junior Kevin Browning alternated at fullback in 1979. Windatt is tough, durable and dependable, while Browning has the speed to be a big play man. However, they may both be dislodged by sophomore Tom Glendening, who was named the Most Outstanding Freshman in spring practice.

Chip Otten is one of seven returning lettermen in the offensive backfield

Coach Stolz' View: I feel the strength of our team lies in the numerous running backs that can play at this level. We have excellent depth with returning regulars Kevin Folkes, Kevin Browning and Dave Windatt, and back-ups Jeff McCormick, Chip Otten and Tom Glendening.

Wide Receivers: This area of the team personifies the 1980 Falcons - excellent first line talent, but questionable depth. Senior Dan Shetler, the third leading receiver in the MAC last year (37 catches for 502 yards), returns along with sophomore Shawn Potts who saw increased playing time at flanker as the season progressed last year. Depth will be provided by junior Curt Lewis, Shetler's back-up last year, sophomore Mark Fierek and junior Jim Rhoades.
Coach Stolz' View: Dan Shetler and Shawn Potts have the potential to be the finest pair of wide receivers in the MAC. They are both very gifted athletes, and can make the big play for us in the clutch.

Offensive Line: Four starters return along with six other lettermen to the forward wall of the offense. The deepest position is tight end. Senior John Park and junior John Meek alternated last year, and senior Dave Panczyk saw considerable action there in 1978. Both 1979 starting tackles, Bob Harris and Darhyl Garrett, graduated. They are expected to be replaced by two converted guards - senior Mike Rullo, a two-year starter, and sophomore Joe Kastl, a back-up last year. Senior Dean Hull returns for his third year as a starting guard, and junior Cornell Jones, a transfer from Ferrum Junior College, is expected to start at the other guard spot. Senior Mark Prchlik returns for his third year as a starter in the offensive line, and second at center. Other returning lettermen are juniors Andy Achterhoff, Bryan Gibbs and Bruce Matter.

Coach Stolz' View: If our offensive line continues to improve, we have the potential of being way above average.

We return two-year regulars in Mark Prchlik, Dean Hull, Mike Rullo and John Park. They will make up the backbone of the offensive line, and it is our opinion, that our success offensively will rise and fall with these four seniors.

Defense

Defensive Line: This is another area that could be a strength, but is dangerously thin. Tri-captain Tim Ross and senior Todd Gates will anchor the line. Ross, a second team all-MAC pick last year and a player with definite pro potential, will hold down the end position on the weak side. He has both the size (6'5", 215) and speed (4.6) to be one of the best defensive linemen in the MAC. Gates will play the strong side tackle spot. A standout as a sophomore, he was nagged by injuries last year, but has the potential to be another all-MAC performer. The other two starters in the line are expected to be junior Rick Iverson at weakside tackle, and senior Craig Valentine at nose tackle. A defensive end last year, Valentine will be pushed by sophomore Ernie Kovath.

Coach Stolz' View: Tim Ross and Todd Gates have the potential to be outstanding at their positions, and Craig Valentine will anchor the middle of the line. We have great concern with the depth in this area, and are hoping freshmen will be the answer.

Linebackers: Starters Andre Young and Doug Carr return along with lettermen Mike Bixel, Terry Gyetvai, Pat Kennedy and Sam Thacker. The one key missing face is John Fitzpatrick, the leading tackler on the team last year. Young will start at the position the coaching staff calls strongside end, but is in reality, a linebacking spot. Carr is the top candidate at strongside linebacker, while Bixel, a reserve end last year, and Gyetvai are battling for the weakside linebacker spot.

Coach Stolz' View: The linebacker position has been questionable for a couple of years, but it is starting to crystalize somewhat with Doug Carr and Andre Young coming to the top. Hopefully, Mike Bixel, Terry Gyetvai and Pat Kennedy can fill in the voids.

Secondary: The Falcon secondary made big strides last year, and should continue to improve this year with most everyone back. The key loss is junior safety Jac Tomasello. A two-year starter, he suffered a serious knee injury, and is not expected to be able to play in 1980. Veterans Joe Merritt (knee) and Steve Raabe (shoulder) both had off-season surgery. If they can return to form, the Falcons will have a solid group of defensive backs. Other top returners include converted fullback Carl Rosser, impressive sophomores Lee Williams and Joe Moton, versatile Jim Baarman, and sophomore Jim Rusher.

Coach Stolz' View: The secondary looks sound with the return of Steve Raabe, Joe Moton and Lee Williams, and the move of Carl Rosser from offense. We also appear to have good depth in this area.

Kicking Game

A weak area in 1978 and a question mark going into the 1979 season, this should be one of the team's strengths in 1980. Senior John Spengler comes into the season with consecutive strings of 51 PAT's and 11 field goals. He has a field goal range of close to 50 yards, and has steadily lengthened his kickoffs. Sophomore Jeff Higgins returns for punting duties, but may be pushed by incoming freshman Dennis Bucci. Higgins battled the swirling winds last fall to average 34.1 yards per kick, and consistently had good hang time on his punts. Dan Shetler (punts), Jeff McCormick (kickoffs) and Shawn Potts (kickoffs) all ranked among the MAC leaders in returns last year and are potential game-breakers. The coverage teams, headed by Carl Rosser and Lee Williams, were much improved last year, and should continue to get better in 1980.

Coach Stolz' View: We appear to be solid in all phases of the kicking game with the return of All-MAC kicker John Spengler and punter Jeff Higgins for his second year. In addition, our return people should be way above average, and most members of the kicking teams will return.

The Players

All-American Candidate

John Spengler

11

PK...Sr...5'9"...167...
Toledo, Ohio (Ottawa Hills)

The only way John can improve on his 1979 season is by making every extra point and field goal he attempts this fall. Bowling Green's only first team All-Mid-American Conference selection last year, Spengler came within one kick of being perfect as he connected on 13 of 14 field goal attempts and all 17 of his point-after-touchdown kicks. His only miss was a 48-yarder against Central Michigan that just sailed wide of the uprights on a windy day in Doyt L. Perry Stadium. He made his next 11 consecutive field goal attempts after the miss against CMU, setting school and MAC records for consistency. He also holds the BGSU record for most field goals in a season.

He is now 81 for 85 in PAT attempts in his BGSU career, and 19 for 33 in field goal attempts. Last season's performance indicated how effective his hard work in the off-season was as he made just five of 14 field goal attempts as a freshman and one of five as a sophomore. In addition to being more consistent, he added strength to his leg, sending more than half of his kickoffs inside the five yard line. His 17 PAT's and 13 field goals accounted for 56 points last season, ranking him fifth in the MAC in scoring.

Spengler learned to kick soccer-style while living in England for three years. John was a seventh grader when his father, an executive with Owens-Illinois, was transferred back to Toledo. He put to use on the football field what he had learned on the soccer field to become a football placekicker. An all-around athlete, Spengler became the first Bowling Green athlete to ever earn first team all-MAC honors in football and golf in the same season. He earned the golf honors by finishing seventh in the MAC Championship in DeKalb, Illinois, with a 72-hole score of 304.

Spengler earned 14 letters in five sports at Ottawa Hills, kicked a 47 yard field goal as a senior, and led the golf team to a state championship. His brother, Bill, played football at Yale, and his sister, Carolyn, is attending Northwestern on a tennis scholarship.

Coach Denny Stolz on Spengler:

From the 40 yard line in, John may be the best kicker in college football. His accuracy is uncanny and each year he has gotten more field goal distance. Three of my kickers at Michigan State have made it in professional football. John has every bit as much ability and gets the ball up quicker, which the pro scouts really like.

Tri-Captain Tim Ross

DE...Sr...6'5"...215...
Toledo, Ohio (Woodward)

Despite the intense recruiting job coaches perform, once in a while a walk-on becomes a star. Enter Tim Ross. A tri-captain on this year's team, Ross played his way onto the squad as a freshman and has turned into one of the Falcon's most valuable players. Expected to start this fall again at defensive end, the three-year letterman recorded an excellent time in the 40-yard dash this spring—4.5—third best on the team behind two running backs. He finished the 1979 season as the eighth leading tackler on the team with 44 solo tackles and 16 assists, and made great strides during the off-season in becoming a better all-around player. Along with his great quickness, Ross has good strength, having bench pressed 325 pounds this spring. Maybe more important than his physical maturity, Tim has matured greatly as an individual and it paid off in his selection as a team captain for the 1980 season. Ross became a starter as a freshman and has developed more consistency in his play each year, although he could still use more aggressiveness. Ross made the All Mid-American Conference second team last year as a defensive end. He lettered in football and track at Woodward High School, and helped lead the football team to a city championship in his senior year.

Coach Denny Stolz on Ross:

Tim is a four-year regular and has worked himself up from a walk-on in 1977 to all-league in 1979 and captain in 1980. That is an outstanding accomplishment for any athlete. In addition, Tim has been our big play man in the defensive line, and we look forward to him having a great year. Pro scouts have shown a great deal of interest in Tim, especially after he clocked a 4.5 last spring in the 40.

Tri-Captain Dan Shetler

SE...Sr...5'11"...178...
North Canton, Ohio (Hoover)

No one's name shows up on more offensive categories than tri-captain Dan Shetler's. Not only did he lead Bowling Green in receptions last year with 37 for 502 yards (a 13.6-yard average), he also led the team in punt returns with 13 for 94 yards, ran back a kickoff, scored three touchdowns, carried the ball twice for 22 yards, and completed his only pass attempt for 32 yards. The three-year letterman is the kind of player who could excel at a number of positions. He's a great competitor with excellent understanding of the game. Dan came into his own as a sophomore when he caught 28 passes, including nine in the season opener against Villanova, to finish as the fourth leading receiver in the Mid-American Conference. He stepped up to number three in the MAC last season with his 37 receptions. He's expected to return punts again this fall after finishing third in the conference in that category in 1979. A second team All-MAC choice last season, Shetler was selected as the team's most valuable player on offense following both the Toledo and Miami games last season. Against Toledo he caught five passes for 101 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown, and completed a 32-yard pass to Willie Matthews on a flea-flicker. In the Miami game, Shetler made six receptions for 69 yards. His excellent play continued during spring workouts when he was named winner of the Falcon Award, symbolizing an outstanding attitude toward the football program. At Hoover High School, Shetler was captain of the football team, a record-setter in the high hurdles and a member of the National Honor Society.

Coach Denny Stolz on Shetler:

Dan is the best wide receiver in the MAC Conference and has been for two years. In addition to his great ability, Dan also has great intensity and leadership characteristics. Dan Shetler is a winner and the type of young man you enjoy going to war with each Saturday afternoon.

Shetler's Record

Tri-Captain Craig Valentine

91

NT...Sr...6'0"...210...
Dayton, Ohio (Alter)

Two years ago Craig's football career was at its depths, following a knee injury that kept him out of his sophomore season. Today, Valentine is a tri-captain at Bowling Green and ready to take over a new position, nose tackle. After sitting out a year with the bad knee, Valentine came back in 1979 to make 29 solo tackles and assist on 22 more tackles at defensive end. The Falcons needed someone to hold down the middle of the defensive line for the coming season, however, and Valentine took over the new position in practice this spring. The move worked so well that he was named Most Consistent Player following the month-long spring workouts. His selection as tri-captain followed his excellent spring session. A two-year letterman (he played defensive tackle as a freshman), Valentine makes up for any physical limitations with his desire and intensity. He is also one of the team's best pass rushers. Valentine was Most Valuable in football and wrestling at Alter High School, where he also played baseball. An A student in high school, Valentine was attracted to Bowling Green in part because of its highly respected School of Business. He has remained an excellent student, and following the 1979 season was selected Honorable Mention All-Academic in the Mid-American Conference.

Coach Denny Stolz on Valentine:

It was only natural that our team would select Craig Valentine for captain, as he has all of the traits of an outstanding leader. He has ability, and he is a real inspiration and a take charge guy on the field. Craig is a fine student of football and has worked hard both mentally and physically to be prepared every Saturday.

ANDY ACHTERHOFF
 OT... Jr... 6'6" ... 215...
 Muskegon, Michigan (Muskegon)

Andy was slowed by knee and hamstring injuries during spring workouts. Overcoming injuries is nothing new for Achterhoff, who missed the entire 1978 season with a knee injury that required surgery. He is still one of the team's quickest linemen, with 4.9 speed in the 40. Andy comes off the ball well and is exceptional at pass blocking. He's the tallest player on the team and comes from the same hometown as fellow offensive tackle Joe Kastl. Andy earned All-City, All-Conference and honorable mention All-State honors at Muskegon High School. He also lettered in track, and like Kastl, won the Muskegon city championship in the discus. An older brother, Jay, attended Notre Dame on a football scholarship.

JIM BAARMAN
 DB... Sr... 6'2" ... 175...
 Wyoming, Michigan (Calvin Christian)

21

Jim will battle for the starting job at strongside cornerback this fall after playing extensively at safety and cornerback last season. A good open field tackler, Baarman is a versatile player who can help the Falcons at any position in the defensive backfield. In the mile run that each player took part in during spring workouts, Baarman finished first in 5:03. He made 25 unassisted tackles last season and helped on 16 others. He was named the team's defensive player of the game against Iowa State, when he made six solo tackles. Jim was a four-time Most Valuable Player in high school, winning the award his junior and senior years in both football and track.

62

BRUCE BANGERT
 LB... So... 6'2" ... 215...
 Lodi, Ohio (Cloverleaf)

Bruce's quest for landing a starting position at strongside linebacker was interrupted in the spring by an ankle injury that kept him from playing to his potential. Bangert was a reserve defensive end last season. He has good size for his position, but needs to work on quickness. Bruce lettered two years at Cloverleaf High School, playing both end and linebacker as a senior when he was a tri-captain. He was named All-County and All-Conference. His father, Tom, played football at Ohio Wesleyan.

66

FRANK BARTOSZEK
OG...Jr...6'1"...217...
Kentwood, Michigan (East)

The most improved offensive lineman on the team this spring, Frank has established himself as a top candidate at guard. He goes into fall practice as the back-up at right guard for veteran Dean Hull. A reserve in 1979, Bartoszek has good quickness and durability but still needs to develop strength. Frank competed in football, baseball, soccer and wrestling at East Kentwood High School, where he set the school record for career PAT's (45).

MIKE BIXEL
LB...Jr...6'2"...215...
Willoughby, Ohio (South)

92

Mike may have earned himself a starting position at weakside linebacker despite missing the end of spring practice with a strained knee. He was troubled by knee injuries last year, but is expected to be ready to play a major role on the 1980 squad. He played extremely well during the first three weeks of spring practice. Mike came to Bowling Green as a linebacker, then was moved to the defensive line because of his strength and pass-rushing ability. Now he's back at linebacker, where he can use his better-than-average quickness. Mike has slimmed down from 227 pounds last season to 215 pounds now. Bixel made All-State, All-District and All-League at Willoughby South High School, and broke the school record for tackles in one season.

40

KEVIN BROWNING
FB...Jr...5'11"...206...
Detroit, Michigan (Kettering)

Kevin can be a major factor in the Falcons' offensive backfield if he stays healthy. Last year he opened the season with an excellent performance against Eastern Michigan, rushing 14 times for 92 yards, and catching four passes for 20 yards. However, he injured his ankle against Iowa State in the second game of the season and never fully recovered. He finished the season as BG's third leading rusher with 84 carries for 320 yards, an average gain of 3.8 yards per carry. Browning possesses the speed—4.65 for the 40—to run outside as well as inside. His health problems continued this spring as he underwent surgery on his arm for the removal of calcium deposits.

58

DOUG CARR
LB... Jr... 6'4" ... 210...
South Charleston, Ohio (Southeastern)

Doug holds down the first team strongside linebacker position going into fall practice. He earned his first varsity letter in 1979 as a starter at linebacker, and it's hoped the experience will pay off in an excellent 1980 season. He has both the size for the position and runs the 40-yard dash in less than five seconds. Doug made 30 solo tackles last season and assisted on 36 others. He came to Bowling Green as a tight end before moving to defense. At Southeastern High School, he was first team All-State and Southwest District Lineman of the Year after making 30 catches for more than 500 yards. He also lettered in track and basketball.

DAVE CASSEL
TB... So... 5'9" ... 175...
Wyandotte, Michigan (Trenton)

13

Dave enters the fall as BGSU's second most experienced tailback behind Kevin Folkes. He was red-shirted last year after an excellent freshman season. A reserve for most of the season, he earned the starting berth for the final three games of 1978. His best games came against Toledo when he rushed 20 times for 125 yards and a touchdown and against Southern Mississippi when he gained 93 yards on 16 carries. He has good speed and runs well to the outside. This spring he was hampered by injuries and was tried at defensive back, but he will be battling for a spot at tailback this fall. He is an outstanding student with a 3.74 academic average in accounting.

97

RICK DEUTSCH
DT... Jr... 6'1" ... 240...
Valley City, Ohio (North Ridgeville)

Rick is one of the biggest players on the squad, and after serving as a reserve the last two years, he's looking for a starting assignment at defensive tackle. Deutsch worked with the second unit during spring practice but his strength and hitting at the point of attack keep him in the starting picture. His quickness and speed still need to be improved. Deutsch took part in football, wrestling and baseball at North Ridgeville High School, making All-Conference, All-District, All-County and second team all-State in football. His uncle, George Deutsch, was a catcher with the St. Louis Browns.

10

DAVE ENDRES
QB...Sr...6'3"...195...
Cincinnati, Ohio (Oak Hills)

Dave enters fall camp in the middle of the battle for the starting quarterback job. The best passer of the three leading candidates, he was the back-up to Mike Wright in 1978 and 1979. When Wright was sidelined by an arm infection for the Miami game, Endres stepped in and replaced him. For the season, he completed 11 of 29 passes for 116 yards. He was outstanding as Wright's back-up two years ago, completing 24 of 33 passes for 314 yards and two touchdowns, including a 73-yard scoring pass to Steve Holovacs against Grand Valley State. Against Ball State in 1978, he came off the bench to complete eight of nine passes for 87 yards and a touchdown.

MARK FIEREK
FL...So...5'10"...175...
Milan, Michigan (Milan)

33

Mark came to Bowling Green as a walk-on last year and has now moved up to the second unit as a flanker. His great desire, hard work in the off-season and excellent concentration at pass-catching have made him a candidate for more playing time this season. At Milan High School, Mark set school records for the most passes caught in a single season (47), most passes caught in a career (55) and for the longest punt return (84 yards). He received two letters each in football, golf, track and basketball.

30

KEVIN FOLKES
TB...Jr...5'8"...172...
Detroit, Michigan (Osborn)

Kevin comes into fall practice as the number one tailback after an outstanding finish in the 1979 season. He rushed for 347 yards in the last three games of the season to wind up seventh in the MAC in rushing with an average of 63.3 yards per game. Folkles finished the season with 696 yards rushing and three touchdowns on 163 carries. He was also third on the team in receiving with 11 catches for 84 yards. He was named MAC Offensive Player of the Week after gaining 122 yards on 17 carries against Kentucky. He followed that up with 100-plus yard games against Southern Mississippi and Ohio University. He has both excellent speed—4.5 for the 40—and the ability to run inside. Folkles lettered as a freshman when he was a reserve tailback.

70

TODD GATES
 DT...Sr...6'4"...257...
 Columbus, Ohio (Northland)

Todd, the top returning tackler on the team, made 50 solo stops and assisted on another 33 tackles in his junior year. He ranked second on the team behind the graduated John Fitzpatrick. Gates led the team in tackles for losses—eight for minus 22 yards. He did all of this while being plagued with an ankle injury, so an injury-free senior year could make Gates one of the best in the Mid-American Conference. Coaches selected him as the team's outstanding defensive player in the game against Kentucky, in which he made eight unassisted tackles. Gates made All-City and third team All-State at Northland and helped the team win the city championship in his senior year.

BRYAN GIBBS
 OG...Jr...6'2"...241...
 Garden City, Michigan (East)

78

A reserve offensive tackle in 1979 when he earned his first letter, Bryan will probably be moved to guard this fall. He heads into fall workouts as the second team left guard. Gibbs is an extremely hard-working player who will become better with experience. He was the most valuable player on his football team at Garden City East, where he was a three-year starter. Bryan also earned three letters in wrestling and two in track.

43

TOM GLENDENING
 FB...So...6'1"...203...
 Kalamazoo, Michigan (Loy Norrix)

Tom enters fall camp as the number one candidate at fullback after an excellent spring practice where he earned freshman-of-the-year honors. He entered fall camp a year ago as the fourth fullback on the depth chart but immediately made a good impression on the coaching staff and played an increasingly prominent role as the season progressed. A two-year, all-city selection at Loy Norrix High School in Kalamazoo, Glendening has all the tools to become an outstanding Mid-American Conference back. He has the speed—4.65 for the 40—to run outside and the strength and toughness to run inside. He is also a very capable blocker and receiver who will continue to get better with experience.

48

TERRY GYETVAI
LB... So... 6'3" ... 210...
Delphos, Ohio (Elida)

Terry gained experience at linebacker as a freshman, and should see even more playing time this season at weakside linebacker. He made 13 solo tackles last season and assisted on nine others, and played very steadily. He's a true student of the game, and it helped him make the transition from high school to college. Terry goes into fall practice on the second unit at weakside linebacker, behind Mike Bixel. Terry won three letters each in football and basketball at Elida, and played in the North-South All-Star football game. He was vice president of the senior class at Elida.

DAN HAYS
TB... So... 5'10" ... 171...
Marysville, Ohio (Marysville)

37

Dan starts out the season well down on the depth chart, but he appears to have an excellent future as a running back for Bowling Green. He made a lot of improvement in spring drills and will continue to get better with experience. He has all the attributes to be a fine Mid-American Conference running back with very good speed and the toughness to run inside. He was one of the top sprinters on the BGSU track team this past year. As a senior at Marysville High School, he rushed for 1,149 yards and was selected as the Central Ohio Class AA Back of the Year.

44

JEFF HIGGINS
P... So... 6'3" ... 200...
Akron, Ohio (Garfield)

Jeff has the dubious honor of trying to figure out the infamous winds of Doyt L. Perry Field as Bowling Green's punter. He kicked 50 times in 1979 for a 34.1 yard average, seventh best in the Mid-American Conference. Jeff boomed a 66-yard punt against Miami, but the wind was so strong that his average actually dropped that day because most of his punts went into the wind. He was a welcome addition last season, strengthening a position that had been very weak a year earlier. Jeff played end and punted at Garfield High School, where he was the only athlete in the school's history to play in two state-wide all-star games in the same season in different sports (football and baseball).

67

DEAN HULL
OG...Sr...6'1"...250...
Holt, Michigan (Holt)

Dean brings experience, leadership and possibly the best strength on the team to the Falcon offensive line. He has started at guard for the past two years and is expected to start at right guard this fall after enjoying an excellent spring season. Hull bench pressed 385 pounds this spring, best on the team. His strength, combined with good quickness, makes Hull one of the team's most valuable linemen. The coaching staff selected him as the team's most valuable player on offense in last year's game against Central Michigan. Hull earned three letters each in football and wrestling at Holt High School.

RICK IVERSON
DT...Jr...6'3"...240...
Streetsboro, Ohio (Streetsboro)

96

Rick was one of Bowling Green's most improved players last season and now appears to be the top candidate for one of the starting defensive tackle positions. A sound, consistent player with excellent drive and determination, Iverson could become one of the Mid-American Conference's best at his position. Playing behind the graduated Jim Sheets last season, Iverson made 19 solo tackles and added 16 assists. He has good quickness for his size. Iverson, who has earned letters in each of his first two seasons at Bowling Green, accumulated nine letters at Streetsboro. Four of those came in football, in which he was All-County as a senior and a member of two championship teams.

BRYANT JONES
TB...So...5'7"...177...
Chicago, Illinois (Simeon Vocational)

Bryant had an outstanding spring practice to move into strong contention for the starting tailback job. He was named the Most Improved Player in spring drills. Jones came to Bowling Green as a running back after rushing for well over 1,000 yards in his senior season at Simeon Vocational, but he was moved to the defensive backfield last fall. He went back to offense this spring and was very impressive with his versatility. He runs well both inside and outside, is a good blocker and catches the ball well. He was captain of his team in high school and won all-state honors.

64

CORNELL JONES
OG...Jr...6'2"...230...
Richmond, Virginia (Ferrum JC)

Jones is expected to start at offensive guard this fall after spending the last two years at Ferrum Junior College in Virginia, the same school that produced former Falcon lineman Darhyl Garrett. Jones started at offensive tackle last year, but his quickness allows him to play guard. He is an intense player with a good deal of ability and needs only to improve his technique. He goes into fall workouts listed as the first team left guard and, with continued improvement, could become a quality MAC offensive lineman.

CHIP KAPLE
LB...So...6'2"...210...
McComb, Ohio (McComb)

89

Chip has improved during the off-season and is expected to challenge others for playing time at strongside linebacker. He is strong enough that he may be tried this fall as a down lineman, but is also blessed with 4.8 speed in the 40, more than adequate for a linebacker. He spent 1979 as a linebacker on the scout team. Chip won seven letters in three sports at McComb High School, and was chosen first team All-State as a senior. He was also a two-time All-League selection, and made more than 200 tackles in his senior year. He was a member of the National Honor Society.

73

JOE KASTL
OT...So...6'2"...244...
Muskegon, Michigan (Mona Shores)

Joe moved quickly onto the two-deep chart as a freshman at offensive guard and is now slated to play at offensive tackle this fall. He's one of the most intense and hardest working players at Bowling Green. Joe is also one of the biggest and strongest, yet has good quickness off the ball. He's played all three offensive line positions in his short time here. All he's lacking is game experience. Kastl carries one of the team's top grade point averages, 3.77 on a 4.0 scale. At Mona Shores High School, Kastl earned three letters in football and track and one in basketball. He was captain of the football team and city champion in the discus.

80

PAT KENNEDY
 LB... Jr... 6'1" ... 220...
 Toledo, Ohio (St. Francis DeSales)

Pat earned his first varsity letter in 1979 as a top reserve linebacker, and is now making the adjustment to strongside end in 1980. He made 13 tackles last season, including one for a loss, and assisted on 14 other tackles. Pat is one of the team's most knowledgeable players, and always seems to be around the football. He came to Bowling Green as a defensive back, but moved to linebacker because of his size. He's one of the team's quickest linemen. Pat's brother, Mike, is a football standout at the University of Toledo. Kennedy earned three letters in football at St. Francis DeSales, where he once ran 96 yards for a touchdown. He also played for the city champion baseball team.

ERNIE KOVATH
 NT... So... 6'2" ... 225...
 Brighton, Michigan (Brighton)

50

Ernie played well as a freshman, and weight training during the off-season has made him an even better player. He is listed behind tri-captain Craig Valentine at nose tackle but is sure to see plenty of action. He played defensive end in 1979 and has worked hard to make the transition to the middle of the defensive line. Kovath needs to work on quickness, although his overall speed is good for his size. He was captain of both his football and wrestling teams at Brighton High School and was a state champion in wrestling. He was chosen All-Conference, All-County and All-Area in football, and made 130 tackles in his senior season.

22

CURT LEWIS
 SE... Jr... 6'0" ... 180...
 Plymouth, Michigan (Plymouth-Salem)

Curt has a tough player in front of him in tri-captain Dan Shetler, but he'll get a chance to play somewhere if he continues improving. Lewis has good hands, speed and size, and can move to flanker if the need arises. He played sparingly last season but did make one reception for nine yards. Curt was a defensive standout at run-oriented Plymouth-Salem High School, intercepting 10 passes as a senior, setting school records for interceptions and tackles, and helping the team win a league championship. He also lettered in track and tennis.

52

BRUCE MATTER
C... Jr... 6'2"... 230...
Bluffton, Ohio (Bluffton)

Bruce missed the entire 1979 season with a knee injury that required surgery last September but appeared fully recovered this spring. He has moved from defensive end to center, where he has become a candidate for the starting job. A hard worker, Matter still needs to learn the mechanics of playing center. He earned a letter in his freshman season before injuries slowed him. Matter was selected by AP and UPI as an All-Ohio lineman at Bluffton High School, where he also was a three-year letterman in basketball and track.

JEFF McCORMICK
TB... So... 5'9"... 168...
Albion, Michigan (Albion)

32

Jeff is in the battle for the starting tailback job this year after advancing to the number two position as a freshman last year. He has as much natural talent as any of BG's running backs with breakaway speed—4.45 for the 40—to go with excellent moves. He also catches the ball well. In limited duty last year at tailback, he rushed 14 times for 51 yards, and caught five passes for 39 yards. In the final MAC statistics, McCormick ranked sixth in the conference in kickoff returns with an average of 19.3 yards per return on 18 returns for 347 yards. His longest return was 35 yards, but on several occasions, he just missed breaking one all the way. He is also a sprinter on the BGSU track team.

83

JOHN MEEK
TE... Jr... 6'2"... 208...
Akron, Ohio (Revere)

John is in the running for the starting tight end job again this fall. After serving as a reserve as a freshman, he alternated with John Park last year. For the season, he caught six passes for 112 yards and one touchdown. He caught a 12 yard TD pass against Ball State, and in BG's 31-27 win over Southern Mississippi, he caught passes of 40 and 30 yards that set up a field goal and a touchdown respectively. Meek is a good downfield blocker, catches the ball well, and is a good competitor. He gained more than 1,000 yards receiving at Akron Revere High School.

17

JOE MERRITT
DB...Sr...5'10"...188...
Middletown, Ohio (Middletown)

Joe is the leading tackler among returning defensive backs, with 39 solo tackles and 23 assists in 1979. He may have a tough time topping those statistics in 1980 because of a chronic knee injury that flared up again during spring practice. A cartilage chip was removed from the knee in May, but it's not known whether Merritt will be ready for the start of the season. A tough, knowledgeable player, Joe earned the team's most valuable defensive player award against Eastern Michigan last year. Playing at strong safety, he made 11 tackles in helping Bowling Green win, 32-6. Joe earned letters in four sports at Middletown and played in the North-South All-Star football game.

JOE MOTON
DB...So...6'1"...180...
Detroit, Michigan (Finney)

Joe is expected to start at strong safety this fall after emerging as the leader of the defensive backfield during spring practice. Moton's physical frame and great range make him especially adept at covering ground laterally. He had an outstanding spring workout. The coaches selected Moton as the team's best defensive player in last season's thrilling 31-27 win over Southern Mississippi in which he came off the bench in the second half to make seven unassisted tackles and intercept a pass near the goal line in the final 45 seconds to insure the victory. He finished the season with 18 solo tackles and nine assists. Moton was captain of the football team at Finney, where he made All-League, All-City and All-Metro.

31

CHIP OTTEN
TB...So...5'6"...172...
Coldwater, Ohio (Coldwater)

If Chip can stay healthy, he can make a major contribution to the Falcons in 1980. A walk-on, he impressed the coaching staff in spring drills in 1979 and earned a berth on the travel roster for last season. After seeing limited duty at tailback in the first four games, he came off the bench in the second half against Toledo to rush 16 times for 75 yards, and earn a starting berth against Kent State the next week. However, his big chance proved to be unlucky when he suffered a broken ankle in that game. Then he broke his ankle again this April just as spring ball was getting underway. The smallest man on the team, he is one of the most versatile with the ability to run, catch the ball and return kicks.

14

DAYNE PALSGROVE
QB... So... 6'0"... 184...
Englewood, Ohio (Northmont)

Dayne is battling Dave Endres and Greg Taylor for the starting quarterback job. He did not see any game action as a freshman last year but made steady progress in workouts and was impressive in spring drills. He does not have as strong an arm as Endres, nor run as well as Taylor, but he provides a good balance between running and passing, and is a good technician on the option. He helped Northmont High School to two unbeaten seasons and two league championships while passing for over 1,500 yards in his high school career. He was the team captain as a senior and was an outstanding student.

DAVE PANCZYK
TE... Sr... 6'2"... 210...
Parma Heights, Ohio (Valley Forge)

84

Dave enters his fourth year in a battle for the starting tight end position. He was a reserve as a freshman, a spot starter as a sophomore and a reserve as a junior. He saw his most extensive playing time as a sophomore when he started four games and caught 11 passes for 129 yards. A three-sport athlete at Valley Forge High School, Panczyk has excellent football awareness and knows what has to be done on the field.

87

JOHN PARK
TE... Sr... 6'2"... 237...
Sarnia, Ontario (Northern Collegiate)

John is the leading candidate for the starting tight end job again this fall. He was the starter there as a sophomore and alternated with John Meek last year. As a freshman, he was second on the team in rushing and third in scoring as a tailback, rushing 119 times for 452 yards and six touchdowns. As a sophomore, he caught 14 passes for 145 yards and two touchdowns. Last season he caught eight passes for 67 yards, including a six-yarder for a touchdown in BGSU's 31-27 victory over Southern Mississippi. Park had a good spring, and the coaching staff is hoping he will become a dominant force at tight end this fall. He has both excellent speed—4.6 for the 40—and has bench pressed more than 400 pounds.

8SHAWN POTTS*FL...So...5'10"...160...*Kalamazoo, Michigan (Monsignor Hackett)

Shawn is one of the fastest wide receivers on the team, with 4.55 speed in the 40. He has shown steady improvement after spending his high school career as a running back. He's expected to start this fall at flanker, where he saw increased playing time as the 1979 season progressed. He made four catches for 57 yards last season, including a touchdown catch in the season finale against Ohio University. Shawn emerged as one of the team's best kickoff returners, averaging 17.1 yards per return with a season's best of 44 yards. He also carried the ball five times for 89 yards, including a 37-yard gain at O.U. Potts was an all-state running back in high school, running for 241 yards in one game and leading the city in scoring with 88 points despite missing four games.

MARK PRCHLIK*C...Sr...6'1"...230...*Strongsville, Ohio (Strongsville)*55

Mark brings experience and stability to the middle of the Falcons' offensive line. He is expected to start at center for the second year in a row after moving around in his first two seasons. He played defensive tackle as a freshman and was the starting right offensive tackle as a sophomore before moving to center. He had a good spring and has worked hard in the off-season to increase his strength. A solid pass blocker, he has good feet and flexibility. Mark was a wrestling standout at Strongsville High School in addition to football, and his younger brother Joe will be a candidate for the BGSU wrestling team this winter.

38STEVE RAABE*DB...Sr...6'0"...186...*North Baltimore, Ohio (North Baltimore)

Steve is expected to play at weak safety in 1980, but his most immediate concern is overcoming a shoulder injury that required surgery following the 1979 season. Injuries have hampered Raabe since he came to Bowling Green. He missed his freshman season with a back injury, suffered a knee injury late in the 1978 season and was slowed most of last season by the shoulder injury. He still managed to make 14 unassisted tackles and 14 assists in 1979 and was voted the team's most outstanding defensive player in the victory over Western Michigan. In that game, Raabe intercepted two passes, broke up another, and helped make a tackle that stopped a Western drive at the BG 5-yard line. At nearby North Baltimore, Steve earned 10 letters in four sports and ran for more than 3,700 career yards as a running back.

GORDON RHOADES
 DB... So... 6'0" ... 182 ...
 London, Ohio (London)

Gordon will provide depth at the strong cornerback position, where his quickness and speed can be utilized. He played sparingly last season, making one tackle. Rhoades is a steady player but still needs to become more physical. Gordon is part of one of the two brother combinations on the team. Brother Jim is a wide receiver for the Falcons. Gordon played fullback and defensive back at London High School, serving as captain of a league championship team. He was also senior class vice president.

JAMES RHOADES
 FL... Jr... 5'11" ... 169 ...
 London, Ohio (London)

82

James came to the Falcons as a walk-on, and despite playing tailback in high school, has moved onto the three-deep chart at flanker for Bowling Green. Rhoades never played flanker before coming to BG and is now beginning to develop into a good receiver. His main asset is 4.55 speed in the 40-yard dash. His brother, Gordon, a sophomore defensive back, also plays at Bowling Green. James earned three letters each in football and track at London High School, where he ran for 1,100 yards as a senior and 1,700 yards in his career. He also set school records in the 100-yard dash (10.0) and 220-yard dash (22.5).

26

CARL ROSSER
 DB... Sr... 6'0" ... 200 ...
 Cincinnati, Ohio (Summit Country Day)

Carl has moved from his position as third team fullback in 1979 to first team weak cornerback heading into fall practice in 1980. Rosser was chosen as Most Physical Player by the coaching staff following spring workouts. One of the biggest defensive backs at Bowling Green, Rosser had been used at safety, but his strength and hitting ability can be used better at weak corner. He was the Falcons' best player last season on the specialty teams. Carl has earned two letters at Bowling Green, both as a running back. He was All-City and Southwest Ohio Class A Player of the Year at Summit Country Day, where he also served as vice president of the senior class.

MIKE RULLO
OT...Sr...6'2"...225...
Parma, Ohio (Valley Forge)

Mike has started each game for the past two seasons at offensive guard and is now moving to left tackle for his senior season. Rullo has the strength and quickness to drive the player in front of him away from the play. He bench pressed 340 pounds during spring workouts, one of the top weights on the team. Mike's consistent blocking earned him the offensive player of the game award in last year's game against Ball State. He played behind Doug Smith (Los Angeles Rams) as a freshman and now takes over a position held down last season by Bob Harris (Philadelphia Eagles). Mike earned three letters in football and was an excellent student at Valley Forge High School.

JIM RUSHER
DB...So...5'8"...163...
Gibsonburg, Ohio (Gibsonburg)

23

A walk-on two years ago, Jim has improved greatly and could become a starter this fall at weak safety. He is currently listed number one at the position but will be pushed by veteran Steve Raabe if Raabe recovers from shoulder surgery. Rusher's greatest asset is his quickness, and plenty of work in the weight room during the last two years has improved his strength. He has made as much improvement as anyone on the team.

77

JIM SCHUMANN
OT...Jr...6'1"...240...
Kettering, Ohio (Fairmont East)

Jim owns the starting right tackle position going into the fall practice after earning his first varsity letter in 1979 as the back-up to All-MAC Bob Harris at left tackle. Schumann is one of Bowling Green's best at consistently executing blocks, although he still could use more strength and speed. Jim came to the Falcons as an offensive tackle, then was tried last spring at center before moving back to tackle. At Fairmont East, Schumann earned All-State and All-City recognition and was named the top lineman in his league. He also lettered in tennis. His father, Tom, played football at Valparaiso University.

16

GREG TAYLOR
QB... So... 6'1" ... 175...
Flint, Michigan (Southwestern)

Greg is the leading candidate for the hotly-contested quarterback job heading into fall camp. Probably as good an athlete as the Falcons have on the team, he was a reserve QB as a freshman. He made an impressive showing late in the Ohio University game when he rushed four times for 23 yards, and completed a 16 yard touchdown pass to Shawn Potts. He has excellent speed—4.6 for the 40—and excellent moves in the open field while running the ball. Taylor is not the passer that predecessors Mark Miller and Mike Wright were, but he can throw on the run and will make things happen as both an option runner and scrambler. At Flint Southwestern High School, he won all-league honors in both football and basketball.

LEE WILLIAMS
DB... So... 6'0" ... 175...
Akron, Ohio (Buchtel)

45

One of Bowling Green's top freshmen players a year ago, Lee is slated for the starting position at strong cornerback as fall practice approaches. He made 31 unassisted tackles in 1979, assisted on 20 others from a starting position in the Falcon secondary. He improved as much as any defensive back on the team during the off-season, and his 4.6 speed in the 40 will be used for the challenging job of covering the opposition's flanker this fall. In addition to his quickness, Lee is one of the team's most physical players. An all-city tailback at Buchtel High School, Williams gained more than 1,000 yards twice in his career and was team captain in his senior year.

35

DAVE WINDATT
FB... Sr... 5'11" ... 215...
Muskegon, Michigan (Mona Shores)

Dave is expected to see considerable action at fullback again this season after lettering in his first three years. He has rushed for 1,186 yards and four touchdowns so far in his Bowling Green career. Remarkably, he has lost a total of just six yards in 243 carries in three years of varsity play. Last year he was used mostly as a blocker but had an excellent average of 4.0 yards per carry, gaining 186 yards on 47 carries. While lacking the athletic ability of some of the other BGSU running backs, he has an excellent attitude, hustles all the time and is a leader both on and off the field. As a freshman, Windatt carried the ball 28 times for 200 yards in BGSU's victory over Ohio University.

59

ANDRE YOUNG
LB... So... 6'1" ... 207 ...
Akron, Ohio (Garfield)

Andre is looking forward to his first injury-free season after being slowed at the start of his collegiate career by a knee injury. He appears fully recovered from the injury that kept him out of the 1978 season and is expected to start for the Falcons at strongside end. Young made his first start in 1979 against Kent State and was named the team's outstanding defensive player of the game after making six unassisted tackles, including two for losses, and assisting on six other tackles. The knee injury apparently has not slowed Young, whose speed is his greatest asset. He was one of Bowling Green's top recruits in 1978. At Garfield High School, he was honorable mention All-State and was selected to play in the North-South All-Star game.

1980 Falcon Freshman Class

Mike Blaner 6-2 230 Center East Liverpool, Ohio

Mike made UPI's Honorable Mention All-State team in his senior year at East Liverpool High School, where he played both ways and led the team in tackles. He was also All County and second team All Eastern Ohio. Blaner earned three letters in football, two in basketball and one each in baseball and track.

Dennis Bucci 6-0 205 Fullback-Punter Poland, Ohio

An All-State Special Mention player at Youngstown Cardinal Mooney, Dennis ran for 943 yards in 179 attempts during his senior year for a 5.3 yard average, and scored 18 touchdowns. He was All Northeastern Ohio and MVP on a team that won three consecutive league titles. Bucci is also an excellent punter.

Jim Cordiak 5-10 180 Defensive Back Brook Park, Ohio

Jim made both the AP and UPI All-State teams at St. Edward High School, near Cleveland. An outstanding running back and defensive back, he also was named to the Cleveland Plain Dealer Dream Team and was All-Northeast Ohio. Jim was president of his senior class, and a member of the National Honor Society.

John Downing 6-2 235 Offensive Tackle Middletown, Ohio

A strong offensive lineman, John lettered in football for three years at Middletown High School. He was all-league as a senior and was the team's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman.

Mark Emans 6-3 215 Linebacker Luckey, Ohio

An outstanding player at nearby Eastwood High School, Emans made a record 163 tackles in his senior year to finish with a three year total of 316. Mark was First Team All District as a linebacker and was third team All-State. He earned eight letters in four sports at Eastwood.

Jeff Feasel 6-3 184 Defensive Back Bloomdale, Ohio

Jeff comes to Bowling Green after an outstanding three-sport career at Elmwood High School. He was the MVP on the Elmwood football, basketball and track teams, and was second team all-state in football. As a senior he passed for 690 yards and rushed for 450 yards on offense, and made 85 takcles and intercepted three passes on defense. He won three letters each in football and basketball and four in track as a hurdler and sprinter.

Tony Graham 6-0 170 Wide Receiver Dayton, Ohio

Tony gained more than 1,000 yards each of the last two seasons and scored 25 touchdowns in his career at Dayton Belmont High School. He will probably be moved to wide receiver or defensive back at Bowling Green. Graham was All City in football and basketball each of the last two years.

Don Gregoire 6-0 200 Linebacker Canton, Ohio

Don earned three letters in football and two in basketball at Massillon Perry High School, where he was Most Valuable Player in both sports as a senior. Gregoire also was named to the first team defense on the All-Federal League team as a senior, and was an all-county selection.

Dean Hall 6-5 250 Offensive Tackle Swanton, Ohio

The heavily recruited Hall is the biggest freshman at Bowling Green, and one of the biggest players on the team. He was all-league in football at Swanton High School, where he also earned four letters in track and won the state championship in the shot put in 1980.

Greg King 6-2 235 Offensive Guard Cincinnati, Ohio

Greg earned First Team All-Ohio honors at Oak Hills High School, and also was All-Southwest Ohio, All Cincinnati and all league. He won two letters in football at Oak Hills, the same high school that senior quarterback Dave Endres graduated from.

Broderick Knight 6-1 195 Linebacker Highland Park, Michigan

Broderick was All-Suburban Athletic Conference at Highland Park Community High School and also was the team's Most Valuable Player. Highland Park won the SAC championship in his senior year. Knight brings good quickness to the linebacker position. He lettered three times in football and twice in basketball.

Bryan Meek 5-11 188 Defensive Back Port Clinton, Ohio

Bryan made 17 career interceptions at Port Clinton High School, and was All State, All League and All District in football. In addition to earning three letters in football, he was conference track champion in the 400 meter dash.

David Miller 6-4 215 Tight End Waterford, Michigan

David made 27 catches for 331 yards as a senior and was named all-league in football at Waterford Mott High School. He was the team MVP in football and track, and was all league in the long jump and as a member of the 880-yard relay team. Miller earned a total of nine letters in three sports.

Hank Moore 6-4 211 Tight End Union City, Ohio

Hank earned 11 letters in three sports at Mississinawa Valley High School. He won four football letters, four track letters as a sprinter, and three basketball letters as a center on a team that won its sectional title last winter. He twice won all-conference football honors, and was honorable mention Class A all-state last year.

Gary Ondrus 6-1 165 Defensive Back Oregon, Ohio

A three year letterman in football at Clay High School, Ondrus was Third Team All State, All District, All-Great Lakes League and the team's Most Valuable Player as a senior. He earned two letters in basketball and three in track, and won the conference high hurdles.

Ray Rockwell 6-2 220 Linebacker Northfield, Ohio

A second team All-State linebacker, Ray made more than 300 tackles in his career at Nordon High School, including 134 in his senior year. He also was named All Metro League in 1978 and 1979, was on the Cleveland Press All-Scholastic team and played in the Ohio North-South All-Star game.

Scott Slusser 6-5 249 Offensive Tackle Ypsilanti, Michigan

Scott has the size needed to become an excellent collegiate lineman at Bowling Green after lettering twice in football and wrestling at Ypsilanti High School. He was a member of league champion teams in both sports.

Rick Smatana 5-10 170 Wide Receiver Northfield, Ohio

Rick made 39 catches for 740 yards and scored 10 touchdowns last season for Nordon High School, the same school as linebacker Ray Rockwell, another Bowling Green recruit. Smatana won three letters in football, and was Honorable Mention All State, MVP of the team and All District as a senior.

Rick Thompson 6-4 225 Defensive End Sand Creek, Michigan

Rick earned 10 letters in three sports at Sand Creek High School in southeastern Michigan. He was a unanimous choice for all league and all-county honors as a junior and senior. Thompson also made the Detroit Free Press All-State team and for two years was a member of the National Honor Society.

Merv Washington 6-1 190 Defensive Back Wickliffe, Ohio

Washington was All State Special Mention and the team's Most Valuable Player last season at Wickliffe High School. He gained 799 yards in 121 carries for a 6.6 yard average in 1979, but is expected to play defensive back for the Falcons. He earned three letters each in football and basketball.

Mark White 6-3 230 Linebacker Strongsville, Ohio

Mark was recruited by numerous schools, and following his senior season was named All State and All Northeast Ohio, and All Scholastic by the Cleveland Press and Plain Dealer. BG's biggest linebacker, White was the team MVP in track for three years. His parents attended Bowling Green, and his sister, Chris, is now a sophomore at BGSU.

California Bowl Postponed

Champions of the Pacific Coast Athletic Association and Mid-American Conference won't meet in a bowl game this December as both conferences had hoped, but their patience will pay off in 1981.

The first California Bowl is scheduled for December, 1981, at Fresno State University's $7 million, 30,000-seat stadium, and will bring together the champions of the MAC and PCAA. Construction delays at the new stadium forced postponement of this December's scheduled game.

Sponsored by the Greater San Joaquin Valley Sports Association, the California Bowl will become the 16th bowl game sanctioned by the NCAA. Football-playing members of the PCAA include Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Long Beach (which plays at Bowling Green Sept. 20), Fresno State, San Jose State, University of the Pacific and Utah State. The Rose Bowl is the only other bowl game in which champions from the same two conferences play each year.

Doyt L. Perry Field

The 15th season of football at Doyt L. Perry Field begins September 13 when Bowling Green opens its home season against Eastern Michigan. The stadium is named after the man who led Bowling Green football teams to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as head coach from 1955 through 1964. During the 10-year period from 1956 through 1965, with Perry in charge for nine of those years, the Falcons compiled the best record among the nation's major colleges, 77-13-4. Perry, who later became Athletic Director, is retired now but remains a staunch supporter of Bowling Green athletics.

Located a quarter-mile west of Interstate 75, Perry Field was built for approximately $3 million to replace the old University Stadium that had been used since 1923. Perry Field seats 23,272 spectators to make it one of the largest in the Mid-American Conference, and could be expanded to seat 60,000 if necessary.

The east side of Perry Field includes dressing rooms, and enough equipment rooms and training room facilities to accommodate all of Bowling Green's outdoor sports. The east side also houses the 30 offices of the Athletic Department. On the stadium's west side are storage areas, offices of the Falcon Club and the newest feature of Doyt L. Perry Field, the Stadium Club. Located on the second level of the press box, the Stadium Club includes 130 theatre-type seats that give loyal Bowling Green fans the finest area in the stadium from which to watch football.

The Falcons won the first game ever played in the stadium, shutting out Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. The stadium attendance record was set in 1971 when an overflow crowd of 26,860 watched Toledo defeat Bowling Green, 24-7. That same season, Bowling Green set a single season attendance record of 90,552 fans.

Perry Field's Largest Crowds

Date	Score	Attendance
Oct. 9, 1971	Toledo 24, Bowling Green 7	26,860
Oct. 25, 1975	Miami 20, Bowling Green 17	24,194
Oct. 6, 1973	Bowling Green 49, Toledo 35	22,684
Oct. 20, 1973	Miami 31, Bowling Green 8	22,160
Oct. 25, 1969	Bowling Green 3, Miami 0	21,465

Doyt Perry is still a familiar figure at the stadium and on the adjacent golf course.

Falcons — Falcons was adopted as the nickname for BGSU teams in 1927. Before that they were called Normals or Teachers. The name was suggested by Ivan Lake '23, who served as managing editor and sports editor of the Bowling Green Sentinel-Tribune. He had read an article on falconry and liked the name because it fit headline space well and Falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size".

Colors — Burnt Orange and Seal Brown have been the school's colors since 1914, the first year of classes. As the story goes, Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to Toledo.

Ay Ziggy Zoomba — Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. (The official one is called "Forward Falcons".) No one knows who wrote it and it became famous nationally when former All-Pro halfback Mike Weger sang it in the film "Paper Lion".

A Rich History of Success

The history of Bowling Green football dates back to 1919, but it was on the 40th anniversary of that initial season when the Falcons made their greatest achievement on the football field.

The 1959 team, led by All American Bernie Casey and first team All Mid-American Conference players Ron Blackledge, Bob Zimpfer and Bob Colburn, led Doyt Perry's Falcons to the NCAA Division II national championship and the school's first unbeaten-untied season with a 9-0 record.

The next season began the winningest decade in the history of Bowling Green. From 1960 through 1969 the Falcons won 71 games, lost 22 and tied two for a winning percentage of .758. Among the nation's 118 major colleges, only Alabama, Texas, Arkansas and Mississippi produced better records than Bowling Green during the 1960s. Eleven Bowling Green players from that period went on to the National Football League, including Casey, Mike Weger, Jamie Rivers and Bob Reynolds, who spent the longest time in pro football among Bowling Green graduates, 12 years with the Cardinals and Patriots from 1963 to 1975.

Former Falcons still active in the NFL include Mark Miller of the Browns, Fred Sturt of the Saints, Dave Preston of the Broncos and All Pro Phil Villapiano, who will be wearing a Buffalo uniform this year after spending the first nine years of his outstanding career with Oakland.

Some of the nation's best head coaches have spent time at Bowling Green. Bo Schembechler of Michigan was an assistant coach with the Falcons in 1955, Bill Mallory of Northern Illinois was an assistant from 1968 to 1970 and Elliott Uzelac of Western Michigan also coached at Bowling Green from 1968 to 1970. Bowling Green graduates now coaching include Jim Young of Purdue (Class of '57), Dave McClain of Wisconsin ('60), Ron Blackledge of Kent State ('60), Larry Smith of Arizona ('62), Dwight Wallace of Ball State ('66) and Don Nehlen of West Virginia, a 1958 graduate who also served as head coach from 1968 to 1976.

Bowling Green now goes into its 62nd season of intercollegiate football at Richmond on Sept. 6, with a chance to win the 300th game in the school's history. Through 61 years the Falcons stand 299-181-46 for a winning percentage of .623.

Paul Miles—#29

Only one uniform has been retired in the 61-year history of Bowling Green football—uniform #29 worn by Paul Miles in 1971-73. A three-time All-Mid-American Conference selection, Miles became the third player in NCAA history to run for more than 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.

A native of Paulding, Miles still holds the school record for most yards rushing in a game, 217 against Marshall in 1972. He was a three-time Honorable Mention All-American who averaged 108 yards per game during his career, finishing with 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns.

Former Falcons In Professional Football

At least 29 former Falcon football standouts have been drafted by or played for a National Football League team or a team from the old American Football League. Among the most prominent Falcon alumni who played starring roles in professional football are Bernie Casey—a wide receiver with the San Francisco 49ers and Los Angeles Rams in the 60's, Bob Reynolds—an offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a decade, Jamie Rivers—a linebacker for three teams for more than a decade, Bob Schnelker—an offensive end for the New York Giants in their prime and several other teams, Phil Villapiano—an all-pro linebacker with the Oakland Raiders since 1971 who was just traded to Buffalo this past winter, and Mike Weger—a standout defensive back with the Detroit Lions and several other teams.

Jeff Groth chose a professional football career over pro baseball. Drafted by the Miami Dolphins of the NFL and the Atlanta Braves of the national baseball league in the spring of 1979, Groth signed with the Dolphins. He played a few games with Miami before moving to Houston where he is trying to win a regular berth with the Oilers this fall. Two members of the Class of '80 are also vying for berths in the NFL this year. Offensive tackle Bob Harris was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the ninth round, and quarterback Mike Wright signed a free agent contract with the Chicago Bears.

A list of the former Falcons and their professional teams follows.
